

Subscription $1.00 per year in advance. C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub. WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20, 1904.

WATCHES

I have something of interest to watch buyers and would like to have you come in and talk WATCHES. If you don't want to buy now, would like to show you a filled case guaranteed for 100 years.

C. F. HOFFMAN The Jeweler.

The New Wall Papers

This is a great Wall Paper year. Never before have designs and tints been more beautiful. With this year's wall paper it is the easiest thing in the world to transform a dark, gloomy room into a light, cheerful apartment at the slightest expense.

Can you imagine the change that new papering will make? We shall be glad to show you what can be done with wall paper if you will come to this store.

Prices never so low—3, 4, 5, 6, to 50 cents per roll. Borders same price.

Stoke, the Druggist.

A Little of Everything.

Trout season opened last Friday. Winter lingers in the lap of spring. A valuable cow owned by H. Alex Stoke died last Thursday. W. H. Bliss has moved from Sandy Valley to West Reynolds.

Walter Barr resigned his position at the National Hotel and went to New Bethlehem Sunday to accept a position. Miss Marie DeHaven, of Punksutawney, is clerking for her grandfather, W. A. Thompson, in the racket store.

Died Saturday Night. James McWilliams, who was a blacksmith at Rockdale Mills a half century, died at his home in that place Saturday night, April 16, 1904, aged 72 years. He is survived by his wife and four daughters.

KILLED BY DYNAMITE. John Mowrey Met Horrible Death Friday—Large Funeral Saturday. John Harvey Mowrey, a young farmer living near Emerickeville, was instantly killed about 8:30 a. m. Friday, April 15, 1904, by the explosion of 75 pounds of dynamite.

Criminal Court. There were thirty-seven cases on the calendar for the April term of criminal court held in Brookville last week, requiring five days to dispose of them. Four prisoners were sentenced to work house and two to penitentiary, as follows:

ANOTHER MOTHER GONE. Mrs. William Norris is Dead—Quick Consumption Caused Her Demise. Mrs. William Norris, a highly esteemed and noble christian woman of Winslow township, peacefully passed from this life into the Eternal Land at 11:00 p. m. Wednesday, April 13, 1904.

NEW STEEL INDUSTRY Will Employ Three Hundred Men When in Full Operation. Site has been Selected—First Payment of Stock Now Due. For several months some of our energetic citizens have been working hard to get a large steel industry located at Reynoldsville, and at last their efforts have been successful and now it is an assured fact that a steel industry that will give employment to 300 men when in full operation, will be erected at Reynoldsville by the American Production Company during this year.